Elections Canada

For more information, see "Elections Canada" in Step 1 of the guide.

A) Do you have Canadian citizenship? If yes, go to question B. If no, skip question B.

1 ☐ Yes 2 ☐ No

B) As a Canadian citizen, do you authorize the CRA to give your name, address, date of birth, and citizenship to Elections Canada to update the National Register of Electors or, if you are 14 to 17 years of age, the Register of Future Electors?

1 ☐ Yes 2 ☐ No

Your authorization is valid until you file your next tax return. Your information will only be used for purposes permitted under the Canada Elections Act, which include sharing lists of electors produced from the National Register of Electors with provincial and territorial electoral agencies, members of Parliament, registered and eligible political parties, and candidates at election time.

Your information in the Register of Future Electors will be included in the National Register of Electors once you turn 18 and your eligibility to vote is confirmed. Information from the Register of Future Electors can be shared only with provincial and territorial electoral agencies that are allowed to collect future elector information. In addition, Elections Canada can use information in the Register of Future Electors to provide youth with educational information about the electoral process.

Indian Act – Exempt Income

Tick this box if you have income that is exempt under the Indian Act.

For more information about this type of income, go to canada.ca/taxes-indigenous-peoples.
